EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David M. O'Neill on December 5, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

The previous versions of claims 12 and 16 are deleted and replaced herewith the following:

12. (Currently amended) A computer program product comprising a computer readable memory medium embodying a computer readable program, wherein the computer readable program embodied in the computer readable memory medium causes a computer to perform operations when executed by a computer processor, the operations comprising:

receiving a name level instruction;

changing a current name level of a named architected register in response to the received name level instruction;

adding a new architected register for use by a programmer, the new architected register corresponding to the named architected register with the new name level instituted by the received name level instruction; and assigning a new physical memory location to the at least one named architected register upon receipt of the name level instruction instituting a name level change for the named architected register.

16. (Currently amended) A data processor comprising:

a memory configured to store a program comprising a plurality of instructions and at least one name level instruction, the name level instruction configured to change a name level of a named architected register when executed;

at least one execution unit configured to execute the program comprising a plurality of instructions and at least one name level instruction;

said data processor further comprising a plurality of registers; and a register renaming mechanism coupled to a stack of register names and responsive to a name level instruction for assigning a new physical register to the named architected register upon execution of the at least one name level instruction of the program.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Eric Coleman whose telephone number is (571) 272-4163. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Eddie Chan can be reached on (571) 272-4162. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
